Hilary J. Woodrum

West Virginia University
Chitwood Hall
P.O. Box 6298
Morgantown, WV 26506-6298
hwoodrum@mail.wvu.edu

Teaching Experience:

Basic French Coordinator and Instructor, West Virginia University
July 2019-Present
Coordinate and teach the basic French courses and guide the graduate teaching assistants who teach them

ELL Teacher, Ranson Elementary School, Jefferson County Schools, West Virginia
September 2018-Present
Design and deliver lessons and support to over 40 English learners in a Title 1 elementary school.

Tutor, Mountaineer Academic Program, West Virginia University
September 2014-May 2015
Assist learning-disabled students with subject mastery in History, English, and other courses.

English as a Second Language Assistant, TAPIF, Académie de Versailles
October 2015-April 2016
Design and deliver EFL lessons to primary school students in Argenteuil, France

Graduate Teaching Assistant, West Virginia University
August 2016 – Present
Elementary French Courses (101-204)

Education:

Bachelor of Arts, Eberly College of Arts and Sciences
West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV, earned May 2015
Majors: History and French
GPA: 3.84, Summa Cum Laude.

Master of Arts, Eberly College of Arts and Sciences
West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV, earned May 2018
Concentration: TESOL
GPA: 3.87

Scholarships and Honors:

West Virginia Promise Scholarship Recipient, 2011-2015

Mountaineer Scholarship, West Virginia University, 2011-2015

Honors College Student, West Virginia University, 2011-2015

Phi Alpha Theta: History Honors Club Member, 2012-2015

McBride Scholarship for French Studies, West Virginia University, 2014

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholar, 2014

West Virginia 4-H All Star, 2012 inductee

Graduate Teaching Assistantship in the Department of World Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics, West Virginia University, 2016-2018

Two High Passes earned for the comprehensive exams in the WVU M.A. TESOL concentration, 2018

Languages:

English: Native speaker

French: Advanced knowledge